The Fourth step towards Enlightenment

(Maya/Illusion Content - I can see the Maya and am not affected by it)

This course is designed as full and half course as the half course contains only information necessary for the seeker to know about this stage and involves only theory and reference.

The full course is only available to the seekers who have undergone the three stages of enlightenment successfully and have attained the Upadi of Acharya and are in the constant association with the Guru - The Enlightened One. This course is related to the Guru - Shishya Parampara and is mostly based on practical aspects learned during all the three stages. Though there are some theoretical aspects as a part of the syllabus but the secret is unfolded on certain occasions on the qualifications of the seeker and may be different to other seekers and is not time bound. But the theory classes are time bound and can be held in classes.

This stage is overcoming all the illusions known as Maya, above all the realms of the senses, mind, intellect and ego. The ability to see the Maya and its form is gained during this stage and needs a controlled life as per the needs. Deep Meditation and awareness are its prime necessity.

The students here learn the full concepts to understand and then experience the most important aspect to relieve from the misery of life, i.e, their illusion of the world.

They shall also learn the basic principles of the Upasana of the Five Saguna Gods and develop the Tej in themselves by which they shall be able to encounter the Maya Shakti. They also learn to transform the Shakti into the Highest Vigyan later. They become the witness of the Shakti called as Maya and it does not affect them. They shall develop the ability to rise up from the illusion and shall feel free from the attachments of the body and its necessity.

"I can see now the Maya and it does not affect me in any matter". Such experience shall the seeker attain during this stage and transforms to the next stage where he/she see the Braham above the Maya. He/she attains the Enlightenment of the first kind

The seeker can also learn the basic inputs required for this stage to attain, and for this he/she can undergo the half course only on theoretical aspects and can do the practical lessons later at his/her own convenience. But this course can only be done if he/she follows a strict discipline in his/her life on food, living, and wellness (divine attributes).

This course can be only done by the seeker after an interview and a special entrance examination conducted from time to time.

The practical lessons can only be done after the ceremonies of purity as it involves direct union of the God and his Power..

Note: The above course is partially theory which can be conducted in a classroom as stated above, but involves practical more in the form of Sadhana/Upasana and Pure Karma. It can be achieved only by the association with the Acharya and Guru and needs constant monitoring. And when he/she develops the pure knowledge and truthfulness (Saatvik Pravarti) then only the bliss can be achieved in the presence of the Guru - The Enlightened One.

This course enables one to get into the Enlightenment of First Kind which is very rare phenomenon.

This course is only for the divine peoples and generally if the seeker at any stage is exposed with demonic attributes he/she shall immediately be released out of the course. The purity is the main factor as he/she shall be in touch of the greatest powers of the Universe. The fear has no place in it as it is a SIN.
