Sanyasda

The Second step towards Enlightenment

(Fruit Content - What so ever I wanted to give, I have given now)

Sanyasda is the second stage towards enlightenment. It is estimated that about 6 lakhs of Sanyasis are there roaming on this planet. And to a surprise that only few of them do know about the right knowledge of this path. The ignorant peoples dress themselves as a Sanyasis for the sake of their belly, abandoning their work and family causing distress to themselves and other those who are attached to them.

After passing the Gyanda stage, the student gets all the knowledge and then he/she becomes knowledge content. But still he/she is attached to his Karma and its fruit. The fruit of Karma can only be released by knowledge of Sanyasda.

First of its kind the entire knowledge of Sanyasda is therefore, available in its true form to everyone.

'Sanyaas is not attained by abandoning of the Karma/action, but it is achieved by releasing the fruits of Karma/action, and it is only possible with right kind of knowledge".

The course is wonderful and beneficial. It allows the students learn every aspects of the second stage towards enlightenment in a very systematized way with full reference at a very short time and gets eligible for enlightenment.

Further, the students after completion of the course can understand the principles and practices of Yoga and even Vedanta.
